CORRIGENDUM

In reference to letter no. N-U015(29)/4/2024-UGMEB-NMC dated 05th January 2024 regarding clarification in regard to “Competency Based Medical Curriculum” (CBME) regulations, 2023 an examination board meeting was called on 13th February 2024 at 04:00 PM. Following were decided in the meeting:-

The corrigendum of the notification no 005/Exam/020/AKU/2012747 dated-17/02/2024 is as follows:

1. NMC Corrigendum no. U/14021/8/2023-UGMEB dated 1st September, 2023, candidates have to score “50% aggregate of theory & practical, and 40% minimum separately in Theory and in Practical in order to be declared as passed in every subject under “Competency Based Medical Curriculum” (CBME) regulations, 2023.

E.g., if the maximum allotted marks are 100, the student shall have to score at least 40 marks out of 100. When there are two papers of 100 marks each, the sum total of two papers shall be 40%, which means that a student has to score a sum-total of 80 marks in both papers out of 200, to be declared as having passed in the subject; provided he scores 50% aggregate of theory & practical, and 40% minimum separately in Theory (the sum total of two papers) and in Practical.

2. No grace marks will be given to any student.
3. The above-mentioned guideline shall be applicable to every examination conducted after the publication of these guidelines, irrespective to batch.
4. The following result of MBBS examination that gets affected by the above-mentioned guideline will be published on university website:
 - a) 3rd Professional MBBS Part-1 Examination, 2022 (S) which started from 02/11/2023 and result was published on 23/12/2023.
 - b) 1st Professional MBBS Examination, 2023 (A) which started from 29/11/2023 and result was published on 06/02/2024.
5. The format of the mark sheet henceforth will be in accordance with the latest NMC guideline.

Therefore, all the concerned authorities are hereby directed to act accordingly.
